“...the importance of conducting background investigations...”

“Conducting Employment Background Investigations”

Employment background investigations are some of the most important investigations undertaken by a law enforcement agency. They directly affect which applicants are or are not accepted as members of the agency, and as a result, may directly influence the future success of the agency. The purpose of this 2 day seminar is to educate the student on the employee hiring process and how the employment background investigation fits into that process. The importance of conducting thorough and complete background investigations will be reviewed. In addition, the steps to accomplish that task will be detailed. Finally, ethics issues related to the employment process will be reviewed.

About the instructors:

Mr. Richard Graber had a 34 year law enforcement career prior to his retirement from the Ohio State Highway Patrol in 2012. His last assignment was as a Sergeant assigned to the Office of Investigative Services. He was in charge of all criminal and background investigations conducted in the northern Ohio area. During his career, he conducted numerous background investigations. In addition, he has served as an instructor who was responsible for training all new background investigators. Mr. Graber is a polygraphist having graduated from the National Training Center of Polygraph Science in New York. He also developed an in-depth “Employment Background Investigation” course for the OSHP which has been adopted statewide.
