About the Course: 2023 CPT Training Requirements

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 109.803, the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission (OPOTC) is required to set a minimum number of hours for continued professional training (CPT) if there is supporting funding. On December 15, 2022, the General Assembly under HB45 provided funding for CPT hours in 2023. The OPOTC Commission, at its January 10, 2023 meeting established the following distribution of the 24 hours.

8 Hours – “Three mandatory topics“, totaling 8 hours set by the Commission that all peace officers and troopers must take in 2023 are:

- 3 hours School Threat and Safety Training
- 3 hours Legal Updates
- 2 hours Arrest, Search and Seizure

16 Hours – “Optional training topics” at the direction of the Agency Administrator:
The North Coast Polytechnic Institute (NCPI) will be providing 16 hours of “Optional” training related to the following law enforcement topics:

- 4 hours Ethical Leadership and Accountability
- 4 hours Crucial Conversations
- 4 hours Criminal Patrol/Interdiction – Looking Beyond the Traffic Stop
- 2 hours Verbal Judo/Crisis De-Escalation
- 2 hours Officer Wellness

Instructors for this training will come from the following NCPI training staff:

William D. Healy: retired OSHP Staff Lieutenant; Director of North Coast Polytechnic Inst.

Susan M. Rance-Locke: retired OSHP Staff Lieutenant; OSHP Academy Instructor

Daniel L. Kalk: retired Detective Sergeant-Aurora Police Department; Attorney at Law in Ohio

William P McGee: retired Sergeant-Solon PD; Sheriff's Deputy-Cuyahoga County SO

Toby Smith: retired OSHP Sergeant; Criminal Patrol/Drug Interdiction Trooper; OSHP Academy Instructor

Denise R. DeBiase; Lieutenant at the Richmond Heights Police Department.

About the Instructors

William D. Healy was a career law enforcement officer who had been a member of the law enforcement community for over 29 years. For over 24 years, Mr. Healy had been a member of the Ohio State Highway Patrol and was the coordinator of the Highway Patrol's Traffic Drug Interdiction Team (TDIT). He also served as a Lieutenant and Highway Patrol training coordinator at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Training Academy for over five years. Mr. Healy has a Bachelor's degree from Ohio University and a Master's degree from Central Michigan University, Mr. Healy is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute's Administrative Officers Course at the University of Louisville. Mr. Healy is a former adjunct professor of constitutional law at Ohio University. He has been certified as a Police Instructor through OPOTA for over 36 years and has trained tens of thousands of law enforcement officers in a variety of disciplines. He is the Director of the North Coast Polytechnic Institute.

Mr. Healy will teach ALL of the Day 1 training topics in the 2023 CPT program.

Additional Instructors: NCPI will be using various additional instructors to teach the Day 2 and Day 3 training topics. All of these instructors will meet the requirements established by OPOTA and have been pre-approved by OPOTA to teach for NCPI in the 2023 CPT training programs.
