About the course:

“Criminal Patrol Updates”

This one (1) day course is designed to teach the street officer aggressive traffic enforcement principles on how to detect and apprehend drug couriers who are transporting narcotics and currency in motor vehicles on our streets and highways. Across this nation, highly trained criminal patrol enforcement officers are seizing tons of narcotics and millions of dollars from traffic stops of motorists. In Ohio alone, Ohio State Highway Patrol Troopers have seized over $100 million in narcotics and currency over the past 6 years. This training is designed to assist officers in learning the successful techniques and practices to “look beyond the traffic stop” and employ effective and efficient criminal patrol interdiction operations.

About the topics:

- Introduction to the nationwide drug problem and its impact on crime and our communities
- Identifying the drug courier with emphasis on criminal courier indicators
- Change in driving behavior
- Concealed compartments in motor vehicles
- Officer safety concerns and issues; Contact & Cover principles

About the instructor:

Mr. William D. Healy was a career law enforcement officer for almost 30 years. He retired from the Ohio State Highway Patrol after 24 plus years of service. His last assignment was as a Staff Lieutenant in charge of the Highway Patrol’s highly successful Traffic Drug Interdiction Teams (TDIT). In addition, he served as a Lieutenant at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Training Academy for over 5 years where he was in charge of all Highway Patrol divisional related training. He is a graduate of the highly prestigious Southern Police Institute’s 12 week Administrative Officer’s Course out of the University of Louisville. Mr. Healy has taught drug interdiction/criminal patrol enforcement throughout Ohio and the United States for the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Narcotics Association of Regional Coordinating Officers (NARCO) and the Drug Interdiction Assistance Program (DIAP). He served as a military police officer in the United States Army for 3 years, having achieved the rank of Sergeant (E-5). He is also a former adjunct professor of constitutional law at Ohio University. He is the Director of the North Cast Polytechnic Institute (NCPI) in North Ridgeville, Ohio.
